Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. For independent claim 1, the prior art does not teach a teleconference system for supporting realization of cooperative work among a plurality of conference site systems, wherein one site system provides a first logged in conference participant with a display of a set of workspaces relevant to the first logged in conference participant, and provides a subsequent logged in conference participant a display of a set of common workspaces that are common to both the first logged in conference participant and the subsequent logged in conference participants and excluding other workspaces that the subsequent logged in user is permitted to participate, and a display of reference information managed in a workspace selected by the first logged in conference participant and the subsequent logged in conference participant on the condition that the first logged in conference participant and the subsequent logged in conference participant log into the one site system; wherein the subsequent logged in conference participant is permitted to select any workspace in the set of common workspaces.

Independent claims 44 and 55 are allowed for the same reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
